REEVES FAIR IS GREAT SUCCESS

Pecos People Prove Princely Hosts to Delegation of El Paso Citizens.

BY GEO. H. CLEMENTS.

Pecos, Texas, Sept. 23.—The Reeves County fair closed at midnight and in spite of the rainy weather during a part of the week, it was the most successful fair, from all points of view, ever held since it was instituted seven years ago.

At the smoker held at Carnegie library and concluded on the carnival grounds of the fair, it was resolved by the people of Pecos to attend the Sell Products exposition at El Paso in October in large numbers. If they come, El Paso will find even its proverbial hospitality taxed to make good for the treatment accorded to the El Paso delegation, which spent one of the busiest and most delightful days in the memory of any member of the party as guests of the business men of this city.

They were taken in charge as soon as they arrived and were not permitted to be alone for a moment till they sought berths in the special car in time to have the latter attached to the train to El Paso this morning. The Pecos business men gave their time, and in many cases their money, for the purpose of seeing their El Paso friends and acquaintances.

For the ride to the irrigation projects, which are reclaiming thousands of acres of land on both sides of the Pecos river in Pecos and Ward counties, automobiles were contributed by F. W. Johnson, W. W. Hubbard, Monroe Kern, Sam Means, E. A. Hudson, Jr., J. P. Starley, R. L. McKnight, Albert Sisk, M. W. Collins, T. B. Pruett and C. M. Richards.

El Paso men were not allowed to spend a penny on their own behalf.
